

Points of Progress 2006-2007

Fine Feathered Friends, July - December 2007.

Museum Exhibits

*CMU's Best Kept Secret – Bicycles, Beanies and Birds
... Oh My, January - May 2007.*

The Distributed Museum in Anspach Hall.

Educational Programs

Temporary exhibits now include activities that appeal to visitors of all ages.

High-touch programs are still a standard.

The Ganiard Elementary School project.

New Acquisitions

The Museum's new acquisitions come in all sizes – from 6-inch dolls to 9-foot bears.

News & Events

The Museum sponsored The Culture Crawl, an annual event showcasing campus venues, created by the Museum Interpretation and Education class.

Professional conservators provide advice and assistance through a grant from the Institute of Museums and Library Services, a federal agency.

The university recently invested in a state-of-the-art heating, ventilating and air conditioning system installed in the museum's collections storage areas.

Support for the Museum

Your gift to the Museum can be designated to one of four areas of need. Please indicate your designation in the memo section of your check.

Friends of the Museum

(general operating support)

Walter P. Nickell Natural History Scholarship Endowment

(annual scholarship given to a student minoring in museum studies and interested in natural history)

Museum Endowment

(investing in long-term support)

Museum Studies Intern Travel Fund

(funds to support students interning out of state)